WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 20 1850 DIA friend has placed in our hands a namphiet bearing the following title "Minutes of the R. W. Grand Lodge of the State of Rhode Island; I. O. O. F. Semi-Annual, Special, and Annual Sessions, Feb. 5, April 16, and August 6. 1850;11 he has also called our attention to two paragraphs in the two reports of

Horace A. Manchester, who is styled "Most Worthy Grand Master." In his Report at the Semi-Annual Ses. sion, on the 6th of February, this Most Worthy Grand Master says :--

I have now in any possession the charter of the late Orean Lodge. Upon inquiry I find it was sold (by those who had the final hand in the breaking up of the wreck) with other things to the pelitioners for Mechanic's Lodge, by whom it has since been forwarded to by whom it has since been forwarded to me to be delivered into the keeping of this Grand Lodge. Since the suspension of Ocean Lodge, several persons who claim to have been of its members in good-standing, have applied to me for some advice or aid by which they may again become members of our order, but of course I could have but one answer—the Lodge hooks being illegally withheld, I could have no evidence of their membership or standing. I know mothing of the truth of the statements of applicants, but it is certainly a great mothing of the truth of the statements of applicants, but it is certainly a great hardship on their part to be thus kept out of their rights if they are not of the guilty party, and it would seem but a small act of justice on the part of those associated with them, to return the Records by which that standing or membership may be proved. I would saygest to the Grand Lodge the propriety of instituting an investigation into the causes which led to the decay of that Lodge, that the goilty parties may become known to the order, that we may avoid them in future. It may also lead us to sufficient light that may warrant the extension of aid to those Brothers who were really worthy.

In his Report at the Annual Session on the 6th of August, he says,-

on the 6th of August, he says,—
The suppression of Ocean Lodge has tended greatly to the benefit of the order in Newport; and Rhode Island Lodge No. 12, is now assuming a condition of permanence and usefulness.—Relieved from the adium which it is metconduct of a few reflected upon the whole order, the lodge has now progressed to a condition of great prosperity—whilst the standing of its individual members, and their strict adherence to duty will be a sure guaranty to the public confidence—and thus rid them of touch outward opposition, germinated by not considered—and thus rit them of the reckless management of Ocean Lodge.

We happen to know something about this matter, and shall, therefore, way a few words in regard to the stur which this ." Most Worthy Crand Muster" Manchestrent" style, upon those who were connected with this Society.

Every one who has ever been an Odd Fellow, if his eyes are open, and his lancy cannot be pleased with childish display, is fully aware that there is not a more ridiculous piece of humbug in existence than Odd Fellowship. It is a kind of natmement which will answer very well for children, but it is too preposterous to see sensible men arrayed in trinkets, red ribbons, &c. And as to the charitable 'character of the Order, men, if they are disposed to do good, can exercisotheir benevolence without banding themselves together in a mysterious manner, and covering all their proceedings beneath a veil of profound

After a while, Odd Fellowship died out here, as it did in many other places. There were no additions to Ocean Lodge, the members were constantly growing in debt, and none of them felt growing in dept, and none of them felt, the state of the society, or an existence. They, or an existence of the society, or an existence of the society, or an existence of the society, and the society of the Record for the society of the Record for the society of the Record for the society of the society the Record Book was retained by one of the members, with the consent of all who were "in at the funeral of the Lodge," and it is still in his possession, if he has not destroyed it. This Book was of no use to any one, as the Tax Book gave the Grand Lodge all the information which it desired or needed in order for it to grant Cards to any who might desire to join other Lodges.

This is a plain statement of facts in regard to the matter. And this is what this "Most Worthy Grand Master" Manchester twattles about, and expends his sympathy with so much eloquence and owl-like gravity. He talks about " the guilty parties, becoming known to the Order," the reckless management of Ocean Lodge," and such stuff, just as if the men who compused Orean Lodge, at the time of its dissolution, were a going of long of the had been charing honest men out of what rightly nelonged to them. If the " Most Worthy Grand Musier!! Manchester is not aware of the fact, we are happy to inform him that the men who closed up the affixire of Ocean Lodge possess characters for homesty and integrity, which it is not in The Market Control of the Control of Al-Some time ago a subscription paper was circulated among a few of the political and personal friends of the late Hon. Dutee J. Pearce, for the purpose of obtaining a sun wherewith to creet a suitable monument over his remains in the Island Cemetery, in this town. It was proposed to build a monument which should cost not less than four hundred dollars; four gentlemen subscribed one hundred dollars, and had the paper been hamled among the friends of the deceased, we have no doubt that the amount might have easily been raised. We frust that Mr. Turner, the late partner of Mr. Pearce, or some one most immediately interested, will revive the matter, and give it proper attention, for a few days. The necessary amount can easily be obtained. There are many gentlemen in the Whig party, who would willingly contribute to the object, and thus testily their respect for the memory of the departed. Mr. Pearce possessed many noble traits of character, although he had his facts, like the best of us. He was a public-spirited man, and did much, very much, for his native State, and the town of his adoption and residence.-This alone, irrespective of considerations of friendship, should induce our cilizens to assist in marking the spot where slumber his mortal remains. Inasmuch as he was a public man, we should be very glad to see a suitable memorial over his remains, which would be a like honorable to his memory, and pose of making avertures of peace. creditable to his friends.

Any gentlemen who desire to assist in this matter can leave their names at pril. this office, and we will see that the work progresses until a sufficient amount is

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. Advices from Mexico ten days later have been received. The election returns came in slowly. Runiors of all sorts were in circulation concerning the intrigues of the various parties. The clections in the federal district were to take place the 29th, and would material. ly influence the result. Among the reports, was one that Arista was using the National Guard to secure his election.-The returns, as far as received, indicate that neither of the twelve candidates will receive the majority required by the constitution and that the election would then devolve on Congress.

chiers and boards are entirely dispensed wan, one not one quarter the labor is required to do the washing of a family.

The Chuit is a chemical encryonal of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the cloth, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the alightest injury to the most delicate fabric.

The exputure is not more than that of the suap ordinarily used, and besides this it will be seen that the great evert and tear of clothing consequent upon the old method of hard rubbing upon a board, and the use of the pounding barrel, is wholly avoided, and an interactioning is thus made. It is employically the female's friend.
